

But you are a...peculiar people..., that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

1 Peter 2:9

NEW STUDENT DAY!

for prospective and incoming students and their parents

Thursday, December 5, 2019

Do you want your teen to live Biblically, think critically, act justly, steward responsibly, create beautifully, communicate effectively, lead faithfully, work collaboratively, and learn continuously?

Come join us on December 5 to learn about how we seek to assist parents by:

1. Providing students with an excellent Reformed Christian education.
2. Nurturing students in the knowledge and fear of the LORD
3. Equipping students for service in the kingdom of God as ambassadors of Christ in this world.

On that day, you are invited to join us for:

Morning Classes

8:40-9:55 – Students, join our Grade 9s for one of their first semester classes.

New Families Roundtable

9:00-9:45 – Parents, are you new to Providence? Join a roundtable discussion with some current parents and the principal to learn about the mission and vision at Providence.

Assembly

10:00-10:50 – Participate in our monthly assembly with the student body and staff. Taken from 1 Peter 2:9, we will be considering “Peculiarity in Learning”, with Rev. H. Zekveld speaking.

Guidance Presentation

11:25-12:00 – A presentation from our guidance counsellor and principal.

Current Student Panel

12:00-12:30 – Ask a panel of current students about their experience at Providence.

Lunch

12:30-1:10 – Join staff and Grade 9 students! Lunch is provided.

Afternoon Activities

1:10-3:30 – prospective students can either attend classes, or they can participate in some group activities at the YMCA to get to know one another.

RSVP: Please help us plan for this event by RSVPing, either by phone (519-471-0661), email (office@providencerc.com), or online at www.providencerc.com/new-student-day

We look forward to seeing you!
